ATUCK for 1953

STANLEY L. CLEMENT
Principal

Congratulations to the Seniors

Your yearbook presents an interesting, well illustrated and thorough record of the activities of the school. It will prove a bond tying you, as alumni, to Braintree High School. It will be treasured by each of you after graduation. Many times you will glance over its pages and think of the happy years you spent here.

As the publication date is approaching you become increasingly aware of another chapter in your life being brought to a close. For some of you, this is marked with sadness; for others, graduation is more of a joyful event. In either case, a deep sense of accomplishment will be felt as you reflect on the long hours of preparation leading to the reception of a high school diploma.

As you approach the close of this chapter in life it might be well to reflect on the opportunities that have been yours. Only in a country dedicated to democratic ideals has youth had the opportunity for free public education. Your accomplishment not only is a result of your effort but represents the investment of your parents and community. As you go forth to accept the challenge of adult life we hope the skills, attitudes and understandings developed in high school will contribute to a finer citizenship in which you can repay for this investment by your active participation in community life in the future.

Come back and see us, follow our special events, attend our athletic contests and help root our teams on to victory. We will be interested in hearing about your experiences. Wherever you go remember Braintree High School is your school. Help her to bear her name proudly. Be satisfied only with your best.

ation

To Mrs. Kathleen Campbell and to Miss Barbara Neal, office secretaries, go the best wishes of the Class of 1953 for their friendly smiles and helpful suggestions.

To Mr. Stanley Clement, Principal, and to Mr. Raymond Strangford, Sub-Master, go the gratitude of the Class of 1953 for their understanding and kind guidance in school work and in extra-curricular activities.

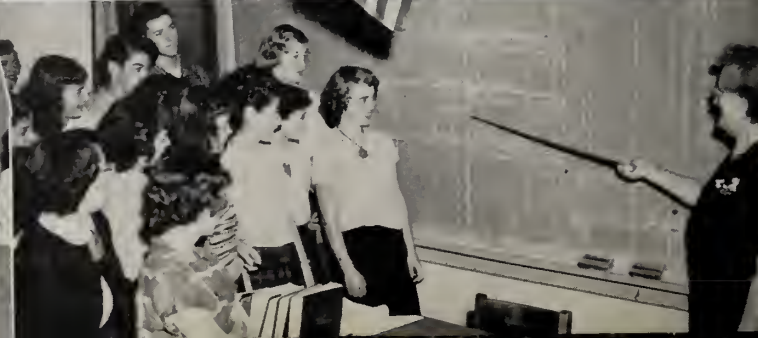

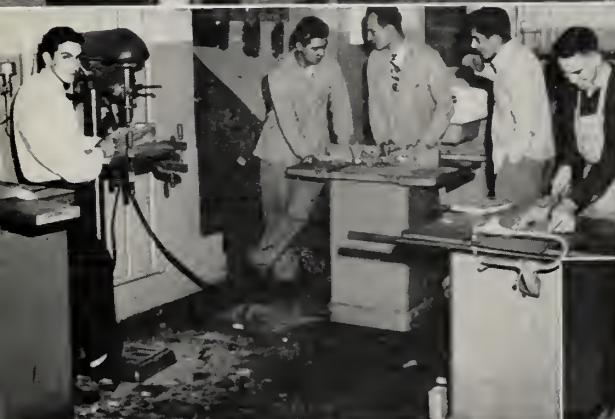

A Salute

The Class of 1953 extends sincerest appreciation to Miss Constance F. Stecher, yearbook adviser, and to Miss Marion Simpson, Miss Barbara Hazel, Miss Louise Hough, and Mr. Robert Bruce, class sponsors, for their kindness and consideration. To Miss Stecher for the entire planning and execution of the 1953 annual; to Miss Hough for the many hours so freely given for operetta and the Christmas card project; to Miss Simpson for her sponsorship of class dances and the keeping in order of the class accounts; to Miss Hazel for her work on the Junior Prom; and to Mr. Bruce for his efforts on the selection and ordering of class rings.

A Connecticut Yankee

A CONNECTICUT YANKEE

Barbara E. Hazel, Director
Norma Stadtfeld

As you all remember, the story portrayed the adventures of a Yankee from Connecticut who found himself thrown back into the middle ages. By predicting an eclipse of the sun he saved his own skin and immediately became the idol of the kingdom. His power became so great that Merlin, the magician, plotted against him. However, the Yankee, played by Dick Tilton, built a complete twentieth century kingdom. The cast included students from all four classes. The senior members were: Barbara Lewis, Carol Goodwin, Eleanor Maslen, who took over in Ann Gallagher's absence, and Norma Stadtfeld. Dorothy Wright was assistant director.

The senior members of the staff were Marjorie Carter, Shirley Dexter, Maude Scott, and Barbara Salpi.

The council members, Barbara Sellgren, Barbara Rafuse, and Norma George, attended a council meeting once a month at the Red Cross Chapter House in Boston. Here they met members of groups from other high schools to exchange ideas and learn more about the American Junior Red Cross.

The band members attended the State Music Festival at Norwood where they received a high rating. During school assemblies and rallies the band was always there to give a steady beat.

The gym was elaborately decorated with pumpkins, hay stacks, and streamers of all colors. The money received from the sale of tickets for this dance was put into the treasury of the Class of '53.

CHEERLEADERS

Alice E. Daughraty, Director

Anna May Seggelin

Our "bright and shining stars" at B. H. S. were, of course, the cheerleaders. These girls deserve most of the credit for the peppy rallies and, naturally, they helped to make the football and basketball games more exciting. These good-looking and good-spirited Wamps were: (B) Rosemary Finnegan, (R) Joan LeRoy, (A) Betty McInnis, (I) Miriam Blake, (N) Shirley Nelson, (T) Pat Kilroy, (R) Judy Johnson, (E) Priscilla Taber, (E) Joan Cushing.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Frederick H. Herget, Coach

Elaine Johnson

This year Coach Fred Herget started his first season as head coach of the varsity basketball team at B. H. S. The team faced a fourteen game schedule which included Attleboro, Dedham, Plymouth, Brookline, North Quincy, Taunton, Weymouth, Brockton, Coyle, and Winchester. Some of the teams were played twice. The squad was built around senior veterans Ronnie Zampine, Ronnie Abell, and Jackie Thrower. Other members of the team were; James Girouard, Donald Lang, Donald McInnis, Roger Olson, Jackie Gorman, Joe Carlozzi, Don Kidder, John MacDonald, and Bob Port.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Alice E. Daughraty, Coach

Elaine Johnson

The basketball varsity Wampettes, under the excellent coaching of Miss Alice Daughraty, had one of their best seasons for B. H. S. Led by Co-Captains B. Dee and J. Leroy, these swift and able hoopsters played against strong opposition.

The varsity hoopsters were kept in trim by managers A. MacDonald and M. Hood.

Seniors on the squad were: J. MacKenzie, M. Gannon, K. Thomas, C. Mattie, K. Leva, J. Leroy, B. Dee, S. Snow S. Aitkens, J. Colson.

FIELD HOCKEY

Alice E. Daughraty, Coach

Anna May Seagelin

The Wamp girls had a spirited season this year despite the fact that they won only one game, tied three, and lost six. We're not trying to make excuses now, but the fact remains that only six out of eighteen players were old hands at the game. Had there been more experienced members on the team, we would have done better. However, the team deserves credit for putting up a good fight. Credit should be given especially to Sally Snow who was the team's star player. Jean Cushing also did a good job as the team's captain and prompter.

TRACK '52

Paul V. Toolin, Coach

Elaine Johnson

As usual Coach Toolin's track team came through with another fine year, winning all its meets in addition to coming home with the state championship. Three Braintree boys broke three state records. They were John Slauson, broad jump; Bob Blake, high jump; and Leo Palmer, pole vault. Myles Marsh was the manager of the team. Coach Toolin said it was one of the strongest teams he had ever coached, a regular powerhouse. Warren Harding was an outstanding runner on the track squad. Other senior letter-winners were Dick Bachman, Bob Bess, Robert Brickley, Dick Brooks, Warren Harding, Don Sodano, and Stan Westland.

CROSS COUNTRY

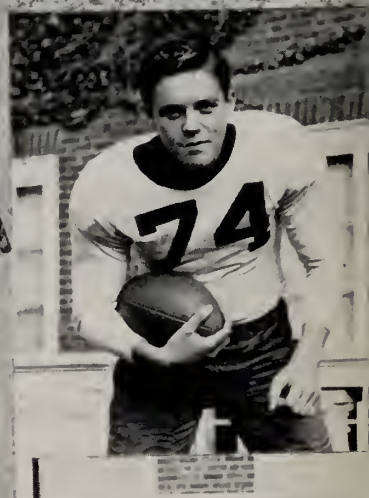

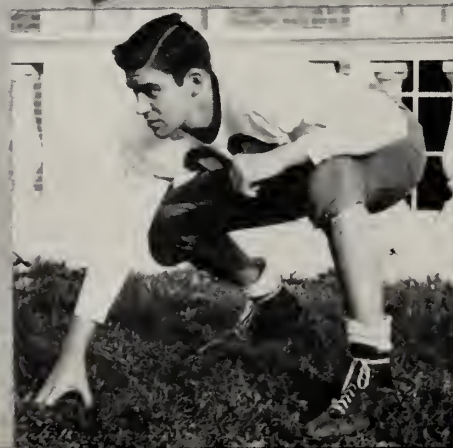

Paul V. Toolin, Coach

Norma Stadtfeld

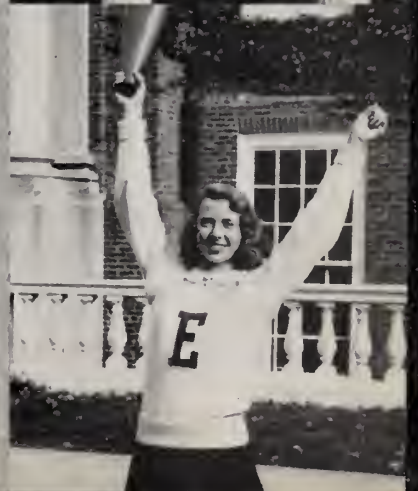

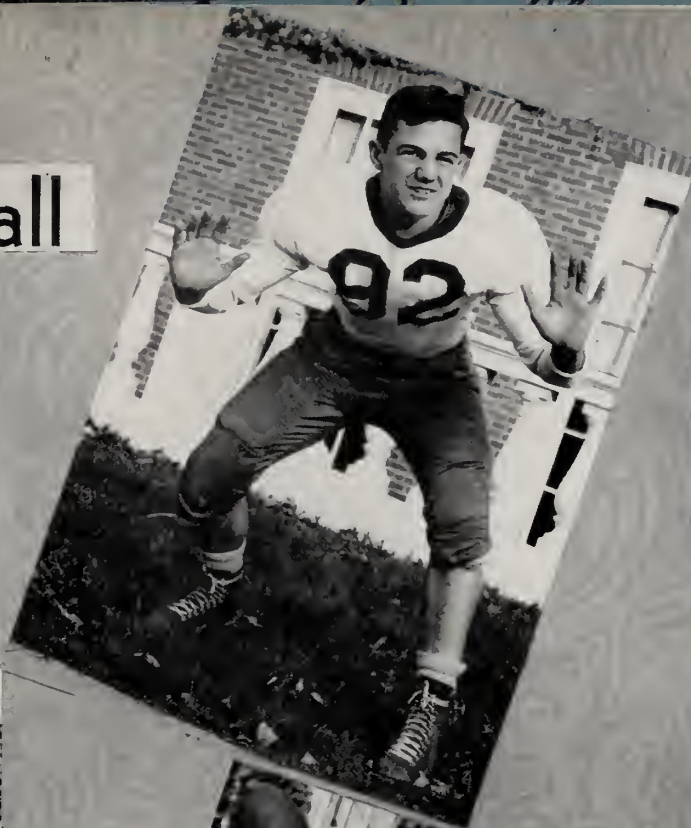

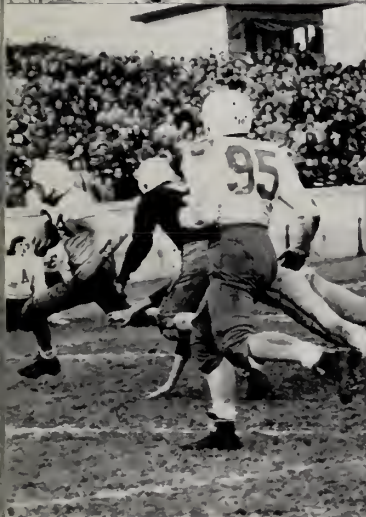

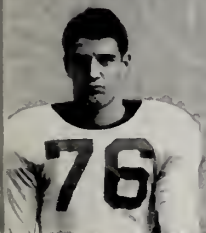

The Wamps should be congratulated on their undefeated season lead by co-captains Bruce Whyte and Ronnie Pipes. To add to this record they won the South Shore Cross Country Championship for the sixth consecutive year and now have a record of forty-two victories out of forty-six dual meets. This year's cross country squad was made up chiefly of sophomores with the two co-captains and Russell Swezey the only runners from last year. Robert George and Lawrence Pettersen were two senior members of the squad. The boys also did very well by placing fourth at the State Meet, in which they competed with twelve of Massachusetts' best cross country teams.

FACULTY MANAGERS AND COACHES

The success of athletic activities at Braintree during the past year has been due mainly to the excellent managers and coaching staff which includes Miss Alice Daughraty, Coach of the girls' activities (field hockey, basketball, tennis, and softball); Arigo LaTanzi, head coach of varsity football; Paul Toolin, coach of cross country and track; Norman Rau, coach of the rifle club; Fred Herget, freshman football; faculty managers, Edward Oakman, William Foley; baseball, John Crowell; basketball, Fred Herget. The football team played their hardest season considering that all their games were tough ones. Robert Belanger was the student manager. Outstanding players were Jackie Thrower, Carroll Barrows, and Bill McCarthy.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Ariqo LaTanzi
Bernadine Gutterson
Directors

Anna May Seagelin

The Student Council, composed of five members from each of the senior, junior and sophomore classes, plan projects and activities from which they raise money for the betterment of the school. One of their most valuable projects was that of the concession stand at the football games. Another source of revenue for the council are the school dances sponsored by the group. In November representatives of the group attended the Eastern Massachusetts Convention where they met members of Student Councils from other schools and exchanged ideas. The officers of this worthwhile council were; President, Richard Tilton; Secretary, Sue McNett; and Treasurer, Pat Haviland.

FOOTBALL

Ariqo L. LaTanzi, Coach
Elaine Johnson

Under the able leadership of Captain Artie Davies, the Wamps played some of their hardest games. Coach LaTanzi said that the games between Natick and Attleboro were the toughest of the season. They were beaten by Lawrence Central and Taunton, but not before the Wamps scored touchdowns. Seniors were: Captain Artie Davies, Bruce MacLennan, Jackie Thrower, Carroll Barrows, Bill McCarthy, Carl Wilson, George Fogg, Russ Neary, John Snow, Gerry Donovan, Ralph Phipps, Dick Imlay, Ed Pendergast, Walter Walsh, and Bob Belanger, manager. The season was characterized by lightning-light drive and marvelous team spirit and co-operation.

RIFLE TEAM

Norman F. Rau, Coach
Elaine Johnson

The purpose of the rifle team is to give instruction in the use of the rifle and to practice shooting while in various positions. Any boy may join the club and from the organization ten boys are selected to compete in the numerous matches. There are thirty-five members in all. Do you remember when the freshmen —

Couldn't find their classes without compasses?
First scuffed up their shiny new gym?
Learned to keep all six feet on the floor?
Were so small and Mac was so big?
Struggled through "amo, amas, amat" and "j'aime, tu aimes, il aime"?
Were influenced by Miss Parker and Mr. "Penmanship" Palmer?
Girls wore long skirts and the boys wore high-water pants?

Do you remember when the sophomores —

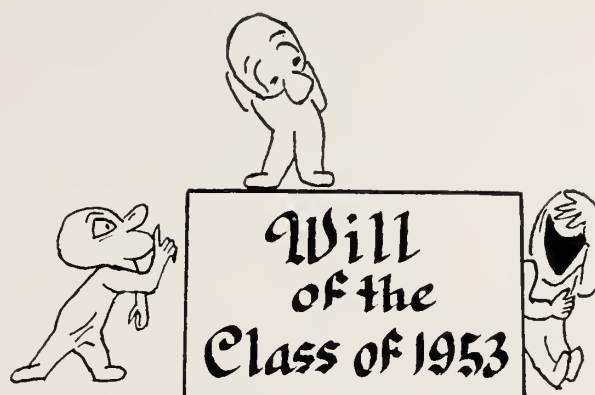

First looked down on the lowly freshmen?
Bragged about their two Joans on the cheering squad?
Showed the seniors how to play football?
First smelled formaldehyde and dead worms?
Elected John Snow, President; Ralph DesLaurier, Vice-President; Patricia Haviland, Treasurer; and Gerry DeLillo, Secretary of their class?

Do you remember when the juniors —

Innocently walked into Mr. Thouren's physics class?
Sent Mary Ann after corn-stalks for the "Junior Get Together"?
"Thunk and thunk" about their class rings?
Sponsored "The Belle of Barcelona"?
Held their Junior Prom in a Venetian Garden?
Became the Honor Society's first officers: Joseph Carty, President; Sue McNett, Vice-President; Marion Allen, Secretary; Eleanor Maslen, Historian; and John Snow, Publicity?
Learned how to dance square from Auntie Alice and Uncle Dave?
Bid a sad farewell to Mr. Jordan?

Do you remember when the seniors—

Finally became "high and mighty" seniors?
Tried their best to blow up "Pop" Tolin?
Elected John Snow, President; Russ Neary, Vice-President; Patricia Haviland, Treasurer; and Gerry DeLillo, Secretary; as their final officers?
Posed for Mr. Purdy?
Danced and laughed their way through the Senior Show?
Received more athletic letters than ever before?
Had their big dance of the year — The Senior Reception?
Decorated the Neighborhood Club for their Senior Banquet?
Proudly marched off Hollis Field with their diplomas?

We, the Class of 1953, thriving in the beautiful hamlet of Braintree, being all perfect specimens of the human race, do, after a forcible repression of our opinions, hereby proclaim the following writing to be our Will:

GEORGE CODY leaves his masterpieces to any art-minded Junior interested in the reproduction of Walt Disney. SUE McNETT leaves her soft quality of articulation to PAT KILROY. DON JOYCE leaves a trail of choking exhauxe to anyone daring enough to get that close. To next year's cheer leaders, SHIRLEY NELSON offers a guaranteed lesson in the execution of a glamorous forward roll. RICHARD JOHNSON leaves his soap box on Boston Common to any Junior interested in the reform of our present system of government. JOE CARTY will be unable to leave anything because he needs all he has. ANGELA DOLAN leaves a highly effective blush to JUNE NELSON. MAC leaves his superb leadership of the BLACK HAND SOCIETY to any promising physics student. EDDIE ELTON donates his guided missiles to the Atomic Energy Commission for extensive research. JUDY MacKENZIE leaves an African ear-trumpet to MR. TOOLIN which, "beyond all reasonable doubt," should clear away all difficulties. To any interested Junior, RUSS NEARY will give a free lesson in the art of how to acquire a female chauffeur who also furnishes the car. CARL WILSON leaves his library of pulp novels to MISS STECHER'S English 31 classes. LUIS HARVEY promises to give any business-minded Junior a guided tour through the FIRST NATIONAL. ARTIE DAVIES bequeaths to EDDIE GANNON his authority on feminine charms. RALPH PHIPPS bequeaths his beloved GREEN HORNET to the auto shop. LESLIE KILLAM conveys to any loud-mouthed Junior her dynamic power of oration. FRAN MARTIN leaves his bow ties and black wavy hair to PAUL JOHNSON. BILL McCARTHY leaves a pair of salamanders to MRS. PINKERTON. LARRY SWAIN leaves a fraction of his joke collection to any Junior who is fool enough to take them. JACKIE THROWER bequeaths to MR. OAKMAN his profound theory of government. KAY THOMAS wills that laugh to any person interested in the study of contagious personality traits.

THE SENIOR CLASS leaves its best wishes to MR. CLEMENT. To the Freshmen we leave our sympathies. THE SENIOR CLASS bequeaths to the Sophomores a book of test answers and a pen adapted to perfect report card forgeries (slightly second-hand). To the noble Junior Class we leave a little room for expansion.

This instrument, consisting of one printed page, was confessed by the Class of 1953 to be their last testament of will; and, in our presence and in their presence and in the presence of each other, and all mutually homogenized, we, believing them to be sound of mind and solid of head, have hereunto tried to remove our names as witnesses, without success.

Dedication of New Service Hospital

The dedication of the new service hospital was held last week. The building was designed by the noted architects BRUCE WHYTE and GARY DRUCKENMILLER. The CONCANNON Construction Company of Braintree erected the building. RONNIE ZAMPINE installed the plumbing system. Landscaping was planned by the very able BUDDY ZOEBISCH.

Many prominent servicemen and women attended. Among them were Admiral GEORGE ATWOOD and naval officers CARL GOLBRANSON and KEVIN O'KEEFE, Colonel FRANCIS GIGLIO of the Army, General LARRY KESTLE of the Air Corps, and Captain JANET COLSON of the Waves. DICK JOHNSON, who has invented an intricate device for swabbing the deck, and Doctor DICK NELSON, the dizzy dentist, and his very attractive secretary FRANCES FITZSIMMONS were also guests.

Several tours were conducted around the building by future employees. Navy nurse NANCY FLYNN showed the wards and private rooms to the guests. Laboratory technician NORMA STADTFELD guided a group of guests to the new laboratories. Another group of guests were led to the operating room by EDNA ATKINSON, the nurse with the intestinal fortitude. Dietician DOTTY HUNTLY will be the head of the culinary department. The singing cook MARILYN HASSETT will add a lively spark to the hospital kitchen.

A superb program was presented for the entertainment of the guests. The master of ceremonies was none other than the King of Modern Music LARRY SWAIN. Guest stars were the sensational trumpet player PAUL WOOD and the side-splitting comedienne MARGIE HUTCHINSON.

Refreshments were served with the compliments of the VAN DOREN Baking Company.

Women's Page

The Women's Club of Braintree met yesterday to hear the very interesting speaker SHIRLEY UTUDJIAN who had just returned from Africa with her secretary HELEN BABIN. She told about her job there as a social worker, and that she had been in contact with another Braintree High graduate ANGELA DOLAN, who is teaching Latin to the African children. PAT MALONEY also was in that vicinity working as a chief telephone operator sending and receiving long distance messages. The speaker also mentioned meeting JOHN SAWIN, a salesman for the PAUL CARLINO Storm Window Company, and his secretary SYLVIA PORTER. CHRISTINE MATTES is the chairman for the annual fair which is to be sponsored by the Women's Club. THERESA McKAY has charge of the baby table; SHIRLEY NELSON has the white elephant table, and MILDRED WETHERBEE has the food table. There will be a luncheon on the same day with guest JEAN RALSTON who will speak on the subject, "The Health of Your Baby."

At an earlier meeting two speakers were present. The first was Miss ALICE NEWMAN, buyer for the Boston Women's Fashion Center, who spoke on good grooming. Miss SANDRA PALMER gave some good advice on charm and personality.

The PAT MAHAR survey of frustrated housewives was posted on the bulletin board.

Men's Corner

The Braintree Business Men's Club meeting was held Monday night with CHARLES AKINS presiding, after the delicious supper prepared by the caterer, RONALD COLE. The speaker was GERALD HARRIS who had just come back from the Mid-West where he was conducting a research of modern farming systems. He told particularly of the people he met who had moved there from Braintree. JOE CARTY was reported as owning a thriving pig farm which wasn't too far from CHARLES PARKER'S dairy farm. Both of these men (we use the term loosely) had mentioned to the speaker having caught a glimpse of CARL WILSON who is a roving inspector of soil erosion and the general conservation of that area.

WALTER WALSH gave a report on the progress of the Teen Center, which is a project of the Business Men's Club, in which he stated that the carpenters DAVE TAYLOR and DICK GORHAM were doing an excellent job. CARROLL BARROWS has started to equip the center with various machines for the boys' use and has offered to instruct the boys in working with them. BOB BRANDI and DON RITCHIE have consented to apply their talents at the Teen Center by being instructors of the ball room dancing class. This class will include the art of social etiquette.

It was announced at the meeting that ED WYNOT and JACK DAVIES had teamed up with JIM CONWAY in forming the "Fix-It" Garage. This garage will be opening shortly and has in its employment DICK HALL and JIM BURKE, very able mechanics, and ED HOWLAND, who is the real "spark" in the outfit. MARY AHERN and SHIRLEY AITKEN have been hired to keep the books of the business, with DON DUQUET aiding JIM PULIAFICO in the sale of new (?) and used cars.

Society News

A wedding shower was recently held in the honor of ARLENE SCHLAGER, engaged to Sonny Hadyn, and GWEN LeVANGIE, engaged to Paul Wolfe, who plan to have a double wedding ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. JACK LYON (Mrs. Lyon is the former ELLA MARIE NASON) are enjoying their honeymoon "on a slow boat to China" where they will eventually take up residence.

The Fashion Center of Braintree presented the new spring creations by CLAUDETTE CURRIERI and VIRGINIA MARCICO at its last show. HELEN BYARD, JOAN LEROY, MARILYN BURKE, and petite ANN GALLAGHER were the attractive models. Their coiffures were originated by MARY HUDSON. Their make-up artist was GAIL OSTHAGEN. Some of the clothes buyers present were BEV CONSTANTINO, PAT CURRY, and BETTY McGINNIS.

The exquisite paintings from the collections of the artists KAY LEVA, MILLIE HOOD, and MARY BROW will be displayed in the Braintree Art Museum next week.

Theatre

Viewers' Viewpoint: The new T. V. show "Everything But," written by PAT HAVILAND, was a great success as millions watched channel 19 last night. DOTTIE WRIGHT, lovely mistress of ceremony, introduced such famous talents as FRAN MARTIN and his band, and MAUDE SCOTT, popular singer. JUDY MacKENZIE played opposite Humphrey Bogart in the dramatic scene "Daggers at Dawn." (What a Thrill!) In the guest star spotlight were HARRIET HAMMOND, ED PENDERGAST and JACK THROWER making their T. V. debut as a comedy trio. Congratulations are due JOANNE KENT for her unusual ballet number with choreography by BRUCE MacLENNAN.

Gowns for "Everything But" were created by MARY ADAMS, and PAT NIHILL. JOAN RUDDY, BETTY BULLOCK, and NANCY CUNNIFF were the make-up and hair stylists. NORMAN PRESTON built the beautiful scenery and furniture props for the show. Watch for next week's show when GERALDINE DeLILLO will be M. C. with ROBERT COYER and JOHN (jazz it up) SNOW, pianists, as guest stars.

Sports

We just got a notice from the Braves saying they had accepted GEORGE CODY and LUI HARVEY who were playing in the minor league to play with the regular team. This team is managed by a Braintree boy, RONNIE ABELL. All three boys got their training from BOB BREGOLI of the Braintree Y. M. C. A. The Braves team is owned by CHARLOTTE MATTIE, a former softball player.

Also at the Y is Weary WILLIE REARDON who teaches bowling. He has worked up a good team. Among the outstanding are BOB GEORGE who won a cup for his high score and RAY PARRY who helped his team win the championship.

We've all heard rumors about that remarkable Harvard coach ARTIE DAVIES whose team has the most wins.

The famous Globe Trotters deserve a pat on the back: EDDY ELTON for his pivoting, BOB PARRY for his baskets, LARRY PETTERSON for his speed and PIPES for his guarding.

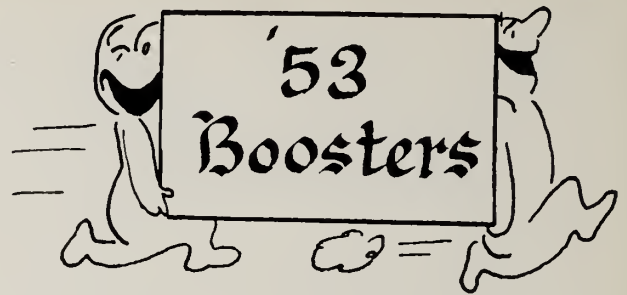

We want to congratulate the Braintree Hockey Team. RALPH PHIPPS is a wonderful goalie and BRAD JONES is a good offense player.

The heavy-weight title bout to be shown on television between RAY BRACKETT and DAVE BLUNT tomorrow night will be written by our reporter CAROL FAUSTINI.

Now touring the country is the Braintree Roller Derby Team. The leaders are Co-Captains DEBORAH LEACH and BARBARA DEE. ELAINE CICCHINI and SHIRLEY LaVANGIE are good morale builders while CLAIRE EDWARDS and MARIE RICHARDI give many a point to their team. Other noted players are BABS SALPI and KAY THOMAS. The manager is JOAN CUSHING. Other reserves are JEAN ADLEY, PAT MARINELLA and JEANNE DELOREY.
